

Alicia Sylvia

Alicia Sylvia is the Grants and Project Manager at the Robert Sterling Clark Foundation. Alicia supports the growth, coordination, and operations of various Foundation programs. In addition, to her role, Alicia represents the Foundation on several initiatives and builds relationships with other funders and grantees. Prior to joining the Foundation, Alicia worked for a number of health-related organizations that have contributed to her extensive knowledge of business and operational procedures in both the private and public sectors. Alicia holds a B.A. degree from Hunter College, City University of New York.